The varied a la carte menu features an array of international and Spanish favourites including chicken Milanese complemented by the essential spaghetti accompaniment; Iberian ham nestled on a bed of sautéed potatoes and topped with soft fried eggs and the infamous smoked haddock, crushed potatoes, soft poached egg and mild grain mustard sauce. Furthermore, each day sees a new set lunch menu priced at €15, a perfect example of the excellent value for money offered. The tempting dessert menu also deserves a mention, filled with mouth-watering selections such as warm white and dark chocolate fudge brownie with Mars Bar sauce and vanilla ice cream, La Sala sherry trifle, a trio of crème brûlée and the decadent sticky toffee pudding coated in a sweet caramel sauce.

In addition to the exceptional cuisine, the vibrant central bar combined with a teeming drinks menu ensures an effervescent aura at all times. An intriguing variety of select vintages grace the ceiling glass cabinet along with the visually striking wine rack stocked full of La Sala's signature house wine. The continuous parade of beautiful people absorbing the atmosphere and celebrating the Marbella vibe, complete the alluring prestige that La Sala embodies.

The new private dining room, neighbouring the main restaurant features a private bar and exclusive terrace making it ideal for private functions, birthday parties and corporate events.
